b. new business

- SCC mtg on May 1st a little bit of info on the edsby group .(Blair is a part of the group) They are having an Early Years Speaker. Are we okay with this or would we like a more general focus for the meeting.

PPCS SCC Meeting

- how is badminton going?
 - I think OK
- discuss again about Dan and Stacey developing a school level action plan report card that will be shared with the SCC to get our inputs as an addition to our meetings. We can share our initial draft – a bit of flushing out to do, but we have the general idea.
- graduation meeting plans any luck on caterers?
 - The people that run the palace also cater?
 - Sunniel Barquilla – would he take something on
 - Melfort Golf Course

5. Principals Report

Jr. NBA

- Home tournament confirmed first weekend in May (3=boys, 4=girls), right now 8 (ish) teams.
- Humboldt Tourney confirmed second weekend in May. May10=Boys, May11 = girls.

Senior Boys Bball

- SHSAA 1A Boys Gold medalist
- Planning a community celebration later in the spring (May/June)

Book Fair

- Went very well
- Met and surpassed our goal of 2000$ in sales.
- The student committee model seems to be working very well (kudos to Mrs. Binkley for coming up with that idea).
- Dan asked if SCC still would like to donate books for those who don't get to purchase. We it as a draw. Megan motioned that the SCC will continue with this practice. Kendra seconded the motion.
Jylene will give Dan the receipt, to pass on to Alicia.

Sub EAs

- We are in desperate need of casual EAs. If you know anyone looking for occasional work (the hours are well aligned with when people's kids are at school) have them contact Dan.

Brain Walk

PPCS SCC Meeting

- Supposed to be Tues on CP awareness day, they did not write our booking down. Dan will try and rebook in the coming weeks.

6. Adjournment 4:30

7. Next mtg date - Dan will get back regarding date
